

Holy Spirit Catholic Middle/High School
Summer Reading Program
Summer 2024

Rationale:

The goal of the Summer Reading Program is to encourage independent reading, nourish intellectual analysis, enhance reading comprehension, supplement academic reading across the curriculum, and generate discussion and activities based on shared experience and inquiry.

Instructions:

Students are to read each text assigned to courses in which they are enrolled for the upcoming year. Students are expected to arrive at school on the first day having read the assigned texts —carefully, analytically, and entirely. Appropriate assignments and assessments will be given in English language arts. Students will be required to participate in a variety of written and oral assessments. Books may be purchased as print or digital texts.
